

THE PENSION BILL HAS BEEN PASSED

NO AMENDMENTS ADDED TO THE MEASURE.

Dingley Presents Figures—Civil Service Law Attacked By Republican Members of the House—Democrats to Hold a Caucus Tuesday Evening—Secretary Gage's Plan.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The house Friday passed the pension appropriation bill without amendment and adjourned until Monday. The amendments offered to correct alleged existing abuses were all ruled out on the point of order that they were new legislation. As passed, the bill carries $141,263,880. The debate covered a wide range. It touched not only the question of our pension policy, but that of civil-service reform and the receipts and expenditures under the Dingley law.

Mr. Brown (rep., O.) attacked the civil-service law. He said the soldiers of his district regarded the law as inimical to their interests and he favored its repeal or radical modification.

Mr. Bromwell (rep., O.) insisted that true civil-service reform was a cardinal principle of Republicanism. Mr. Grosvenor (rep., O.) said that so far as he was concerned, he had enlisted for the war against the law.

Mr. Johnson (rep., Ind.) reiterated his statement of the other day that civil-service reform was an essential principle of Republicanism. Hayes, Garfield, Harrison and McKinley all stood for the law, and the president's last utterance in its favor had received the overwhelming approval of the Republican press of the country.

"Do you favor life tenure in office?" asked Mr. Pearson (rep., N. C.).

"I do in the civil service," replied Mr. Johnson, emphatically. "I believe that the offices are public trusts held by the people who deserve them; that they are not owned by politicians to be used for rewarding their friends. I believe any bright boy, no matter how humble in origin, who doesn't happen to have a political pull, should be allowed to demonstrate his fitness for office, and that the office should not be served to the son of some man who happens to control a few votes which can be used to shape the destiny of some mediocre candidate for office."

Mr. Dingley gave a new interpretation of the estimated increase in pension expenditures, contending that the maximum was reached in 1893, when the pension payments reached $159,000,000. In 1894 they fell to $141,000,000; 1895, $141,000,000; 1896, $139,000,000, and in 1897, $141,000,000. If the expenditures for pensions during the next fiscal year should be $148,000,000, as had been estimated, the increase, Mr. Dingley said, would not be due to new legislation, but to more rapid administration of the present laws. It would, therefore, involve no additional expense in the end.

The question as to the revenue and expenditures for the next fiscal year, proceeded Mr. Dingley, was a practical one which congress had to face. The statement of the secretary of the treasury, he said, had caused much misapprehension owing to the fact that under a new provision of law he had been obliged to include in the estimates of expenditures $73,000,000 for public works which neither he nor the secretary of war nor any other well-informed persons believed would be expended. Counting this the estimated deficit, he said, will be $21,000,000. He violated no confidence when he said that the secretary of the treasury and the president were confident that the receipts next year would exceed the expenditures.

The estimated deficit for the present year, not counting the money obtained and to be obtained from Pacific railroads, was $28,000,000. The anticipatory importations had, Mr. Dingley argued, placed in the treasury before July 1, $38,000,000. Those importations had reduced the deficit last year from $56,000,000 to $18,000,000, inasmuch as the importations were for consumption this year. Mr. Dingley contended that in equity that sum should be properly charged to the receipts of the current year.

Mr. Dingley figured out a surplus of $10,000,000 for the coming fiscal year. He described the steady manner in which the revenues had been increasing at the rate of $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 a month. Although December was generally a bad month for importations, he said that if the increase for the first nine days of this month were continued the receipts this month would increase from $25,000,000 in November to $27,000,000 in December. He confidently predicted that the effect of the anticipatory revenues would all be overcome during this fiscal year, and that after May or June, 1898, the revenues would exceed the expenditures.

DEMOCRATS TO CAUCUS.

Cuba, Hawaii, Finance and Bankruptcy To Be Considered.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Chairman Richardson of the Democratic caucus issued a call for a caucus in the hall of the house Tuesday evening next to consider the four subjects of Cuba, Hawaii, finance and bankruptcy.

On the subject of Cuba the sentiment is practically unanimous in favor of a resolution favoring the recognition of Cuban belligerency and the caucus is likely to give expression to this sentiment. On financial questions the caucus probably will take a position against the several plans of financial reform recommended by Secretary Gage. Opposition to the bankruptcy bill is also contemplated by the caucus. On the question of Hawaiian annexation it is stated by those who have canvassed the feeling on the Democratic side that it is practically unanimous against annexation either by treaty or by legislation.

NEED OF QUARANTINE PLAN.

South Likely to Become Favorable to a National System.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Senator Caffery and other Southern leaders in congress believe that the South will finally yield to the establishment of a national quarantine system.

Mr. Caffery's bill introduced yesterday will be vigorously urged. The experience which the South had recently with yellow fever has demonstrated the futility of her local quarantine regulations. While New Orleans provided the greatest safeguards against yellow fever the past season, and her local regulations were all that could be desired, "yellow jack" crept in through Mobile, where the regulations were lax, and all the local precautions taken by New Orleans were for naught. Senator Caffery says the people have finally learned that no quarantine is effective unless it is uniform throughout the states.

Resigns from Election Committee.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Owing to ill health Representative Johnson of Indiana today tendered his resignation as chairman of election committee No. 2 of the house. He will devote his attention to the banking and currency committee, of which he is a member. Mr. Royce of Indiana probably will succeed him on the elections committee.

Secretary Gage's Purpose.

Washington, Dec. 11.—It is stated in reliable quarters that Secretary Gage has made his purpose known not to embody his financial views in one comprehensive bill, but to cover special subjects in a number of special bills, some of which would go before the house committee on banking and currency and others before the committee on ways and means.

Hawaiians Are Encouraged.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The delegation of Hawaiian natives who are here in opposition to the annexation treaty called upon several senators at the capitol to urge their views. They have attempted no canvass of the senate, but say they have received considerable encouragement.

INJUNCTION REFUSED.

Judge McClure Rejects the Petition of Indiana Officials.

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 11.—Judge McClure refused to grant the state an injunction against the Standard Oil Company's gas-wasting methods in the gas field. The petition for an injunction was filed by Attorney General Ketcham upon orders from Governor Morton. The case will be appealed to the supreme court, and if necessary carried to the federal courts.

Judge McClure ruled against the injunction on the grounds of insufficiency. The state waived hearing, and instructed stenographers to rush through the transcript. The appeal will be made to the supreme court to-day. The governor will ask to have the case pushed, and a ruling will probably be made by Jan. 1.

Fomenting Trouble in Vienna.

Vienna, Dec. 11.—A great sensation has been caused here by the posting broadcast of red placards, even in the inner town and hofburg, inscribed "No ausgleich." "Abolish the language ordinances," and "German is the national language." The ausgleich is the compact existing between Austria and Hungary providing for a common head, the emperor of Austria and king of Hungary, and for a common administration of foreign affairs, defense, financial affairs, commercial affairs, etc., although each country has its own parliament and ministry.

Fight for 3-Cent Fares.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 11.—The city of Indianapolis will not abandon its fight for 3-cent fares on account of the adverse decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals Friday. The case will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. William A. Ketcham, for the state, and John W. Kern, for the city, who have the case in charge, say they are confident that the Supreme court will hold that the decision of the state Supreme court that the law is valid must govern.

Hanna Sick in New York.

New York, Dec. 11.—Senator Hanna was taken suddenly ill in the Waldorf-Astoria Friday night and retired to his apartments. He arrived at the hotel from Washington at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The long ride proved to be fatiguing in the extreme, and on his arrival he complained of being weary. It was said at the hotel, however, that no physician had been summoned. Senator Hanna expects to return to Washington on Monday.

Fearing Kaiser's Wrath.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—A workman of this city, who was charged with leze majesty, committed suicide by blowing out his brains with a revolver. The act was prompted by a fear of punishment for his offense.

STRONGER MARKETS ARE NOW THE RULE

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE SEES ENCOURAGING SIGNS.

Rise in Wheat Does No Harm—Assertion Made That It Is Based On Avoiced Contracts to Ship Millions of Bushels to Europe—Decrease in Week's Failures

New York, Dec. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The opening of congress, with the annual message and reports, has not discouraged business, as some predicted, but all speculative markets are stronger than a week ago. The outward movement of wheat and other products continues so heavy that foreign exchange has fallen three-quarters of a cent, and instead of exports of gold, which have marked December in recent years, imports would come if gold were wanted. Securities are advancing, relying upon the increased earnings of the railways, $47,085,801 for November on reporting roads in the United States, 16.8 per cent larger than last year, and 5.9 per cent larger than in 1892. A strict comparison for five years shows that in each of the last three months earnings have been greater than in any previous year, with a larger increase in November than in October or September.

"The sudden rise in December wheat at Chicago to $1.09 would do harm were it not based on averted contracts to ship some millions of bushels to Europe. Western receipts for the week were 5,798,771 bushels, against 3,691,374 last year. The report that western supplies are running low is discredited by receipts from farms. Cotton is a sixteenth stronger. A strike in English mills is no longer threatened, and the possibility of one at Fall River has little weight. Sales in domestic wool markets for the last week have been only 2,660,000 pounds at Boston, and in two weeks 11,050,400 pounds at three markets.

"There is more demand for iron and steel products in preparation for railway work, bridges and buildings next year and on contracts for export, including one for a government bridge in Holland and others for bridges in Japan, with large shipments of various products to England and other countries. Foreign contracts for 40,000 tons of rails are pending.

"Failures for the week have been 312 in the United States, against 380 last year, and 29 in Canada, against 43 last year."

NEGRO MURDERER CAPTURED.

Will Probably Be Hanged for Killing a Woman and Four Children.

Wesson, Miss., Dec. 11.—Charles Lewis, a negro accused of killing the wife and four children of Brown Smith, was captured by a posse, carried back to the scene of his crime, where he was fully identified by the surviving girl, and was put on trial before Justice T. D. Holmes. He gave testimony implicating two other negroes, Will Powell and Andy Smith, who are now in custody. It is said positively that the recent lynching at Monroe will be imitated, making it public, and every negro will be made to carry pine knots to burn the others. The trial is being conducted in a lawful manner, and the committee having charge of the prisoners will not permit them to be sent to any jail. Lewis is a mulatto about 23 years old and married. It is believed that a general clean-up will be made in this part of the country, and that a number of negroes will be burned.

Score in Six-Day Bicycle Race.

New York, Dec. 11.—The score in the six-day bicycle race at 2:15 a. m. was:

Miller, miles, 1,921; laps, 2. Rice, 1,825; 4. Schiener, 1,806. Riviere, 1,746; 6. Hale, 1,717; 6. Waller, 1,693; 6. Pierce, 1,649; 7. Elkes, 1,550; 5. Golden, 1,546; 4. Gannon, 1,528; 4. Moore, 1,495; 6. Kinz, 1,425; Julius, 1,329; 1. Beacom, 1,135; 8. Johnson, 1,112; 8. Gray, 1,060; 3.

Miller is 251 miles ahead of the record for 122 hours. The race closes tonight at midnight.

William Kern Pleads Guilty.

Waverly, Iowa, Dec. 11.—On being brought into court Friday William Kern entered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree. Judge Clyde said that he would impose sentence to-day. At the same time Delilah Fales will have judgment passed upon her. Her condition is much worse and is considered serious. Public sentiment here is changing and now favors the defendants.

Greek-Turkish Treaty.

London, Dec. 11.—The text of the definitive treaty of peace between Turkey and Greece, which is published here, contains about 2,000 words, including two protocols referring respectively to the commercial convention and consular immunities. The treaty amplifies the preliminary peace terms, all the points of which have already been published.

Government Locks Ruined.

Galena, Ill., Dec. 11.—A flood Friday caused by heavy rain, practically destroyed the government locks at the mouth of the Galena river. These locks were built seven years ago at a cost of $100,000. The damage was caused by the great ice flow.

THE MINERS GAIN A GREAT VICTORY.

ILLINOIS OPERATORS GRANT THE GROSS WEIGHT SCALE.

The Long Strike Is Ended—For Seven Months the Miners Have Held Out For What They Considered Their Rights—Two Thousand Men to Go to Work.

Streator, Ill., Dec. 11.—After standing out for seven months for what they thought was due them the Streator miners have gained a decided victory. The operators have agreed to pay the gross-weight scale for mining which was adopted at the Joliet conference a few days ago. A number of the smaller mines have been working for the scale, but a large number of miners have left the city and sought work elsewhere.

Thursday the Star company offered the men 42 cents gross weight, but the offer was rejected. Then the officials agreed to pay 44 cents, and it was accepted. A. L. Sweet, manager of the Chicago, Wilmington & Vermillion company, was in the city, and when he heard of the action of the Star Coal company he promptly made a similar offer. This ends the long strike in this section and will put 2,000 men at work in the next few days.

SEEMS TO BE NEAR DEATH.

Mrs. McKinley's Condition Steadily Becoming Less Hopeful.

Canton, O., Dec. 11.—Friday was the ninth day of the sickness of Mrs. Nancy Allison McKinley. Several visits were made by Dr. Phillips and at each one it was reported that there were clear indications the patient had become decidedly weaker. The relatives in attendance are forced to believe that the hour of death is near at hand.

President McKinley has been almost constant in his vigil. It was with the greatest difficulty that the other relatives prevailed upon him to take even brief rests. All were sorrowfully waiting for the end. The president continued his vigil by the side of his mother. His great self-control, however, is the wonder of all. He shows little of the deep emotion which he feels.

Mails Robbed of $100,000.

New York, Dec. 11.—It is learned that one of the biggest robberies in the history of the New York postoffice was committed on Nov. 9. The amount involved is said to be in the neighborhood of $100,000, and was taken from registered letters in the railway mail service on that section of the Central Railway of New Jersey known as the New York, Somerville and Easton branch. The postal officials here admit that there had been a number of losses of registered mail matter reported on the railroad referred to, but said that up to date no definite advices had been received as to the amount. It would probably, however, not reach as much as $100,000.

Arrest of Milford Bank Robber.

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 11.—A man giving the name of George Barnhard, has been arrested at Alliance, Ohio, charged with being one of the robbers who looted the Milford bank a week ago. He was brought here and given a preliminary hearing. He was positively identified by witnesses of the crime. He was bound over in $3,000 bonds, lacking which he was placed in jail to await trial.

Is Reconciled to His Wife.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 11.—Mrs. Florence Baldwin Deacon, the wife of Edward Parker Deacon, arrived here at the Hotel Vendome on Wednesday night to visit her husband and her daughter Edith. Mr. Deacon is confined at the McLane Hospital at Waverly, Mass., about six miles from this city. Mrs. Deacon arrived from Europe a fortnight ago. The meeting yesterday morning was in the nature of a complete reconciliation.

Lieut. Hornbeck Missing.

Streator, Ill., Dec. 11.—Police officers throughout the state have been notified to arrest, if possible, Lieutenant LeRoy Hornbeck of Company A, Third Regiment, I. N. G., who is thought to have absconded with something over $600 of the state's funds.

Bill Collector (authoritatively)—I wish to see Mr. Neverpay immediately. Shrewd Servant—You can't see him now. He's gone to bed, so we can wash his flannels.—N. Y. Weekly.

TALK OF COWARDICE.

Spanish Press Declares This Country Has Pockets the Monroe Doctrine.

Madrid, Dec. 11.—The official note of the president of Hayti, saying he was ready to resist German imposition, but that the United States had failed him, has been published here.

The morning papers, El Imparcial among them, publish articles on the subject, declaring it is once more proved that the United States never dares anything against a powerful or resolute enemy, and that the proper course for Spain is to prove by its acts that American intervention in Cuba means war, as is really the case.

Telegrams from Berlin and Paris are arriving with the comments of the German and French press, declaring that the United States has pocketed the Monroe doctrine on seeing Kaiser William's resolute attitude.

GRANTED THE WRIT.

Illinois Supreme Court Acts in the Spalding Case.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 11.—The Supreme court on Friday granted a writ of supersedeas on the petition of ex-Banker Charles W. Spalding, in the case of Charles W. Spalding vs. The People, and denied the motion for admission to bail.

Spalding was sentenced by the Criminal court of Cook county to an indeterminate term in the Joliet state prison Dec. 1, 1897, on conviction of embezzling $25,000 while acting as treasurer of the University of Illinois of Champaign.

The case will now be submitted for hearing at the February term of the Supreme court, after which it will be then taken by the court and an opinion probably be filed by April.

Delawares File a Protest.

Muscookee, I. T., Dec. 11.—The petition of the Delaware Indians to the department of the interior, asking for their rights in the Cherokee nation, has just been made public. The document, which is quite a lengthy one, refers to the contract between the Cherokees and the Delawares, by which the Delawares bought 1,600 acres of land and communal rights in the Cherokee nation for $279,424. The appropriation of $400,000 by the Cherokee council to equalize the freedmen's share in the per capita distribution of the Cherokee strip fund and the payment of $126,000 attorney's fees out of it is denounced, as is also the admission of freedmen to citizenship in the Union.

Better Than Anthracite.

Moline, Ill., Dec. 11.—Charles W. Smith of Minneapolis has secured, through Moline attorneys, a patent on a process for converting soft coal into a fuel which is pronounced superior to anthracite. It is claimed that a ton of soft coal produces 1,300 pounds of the hard coal, besides 6,000 to 9,000 cubic feet of the best illuminating gas and 300 pounds of tar. The inventor is arranging to start a big plant in this city and will make Moline his headquarters.

Adrift On the Pacific.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 11.—The steamer Tacoma from Yokohama, brings no news of the Pelican, which is fifty-eight days out from Port Townsend for Tien-Tsin, with lumber. Shipping men are of the opinion that, like the Strathnevis, in the spring of 1895, the Pelican is drifting about the Pacific with her machinery broken down. The Pelican carried no passengers, and there was but three months' provisions for the crew.

Lowell Mills Won't Cut.

Manchester, N. Y., Dec. 11.—General Agent Herman of the Amoskeag Corporation is authority for the statement that the cut in cotton-mill wages in Fall River will not be followed in this city, that the Fall River action pertains only to the mills of that city, and it is not probable that the example will be followed in other New England cities.

George Parry a Fixture.

New York, Dec. 11.—Hereafter the Democracy of Thomas Jefferson, otherwise known as the Henry George party, will take a hand in state as well as in local politics. At a meeting just held the leaders decided to form a permanent organization. It is their object to extend the party throughout the state and nominate a governor next year.

Fears for a Schooner.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 11.—The schooner Augusta, from Copper River, Alaska, is ten days overdue. Last Monday the steamer Farallon passed a steam schooner answering the description of the Augusta off Victoria. Monday night a heavy storm prevailed and this fact is causing uneasiness. The Augusta left Seattle the latter part of October for Copper River.

Another Protest from Japan.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 11.—The steamer Tacoma brings news that another protest against the annexation of Hawaii has been forwarded by the Japanese government. The protest is said to be quite similar to that on the subject given once before by Count Okuma.

Will Advance Into Sudan.

London, Dec. 11.—According to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Cairo, 600 British troops will take part in the advance of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition in the Sudan that was postponed after the capture of Berber last September in order to avoid the hot season.

MILWAUKEE ISSUE OF NO VALUE

Securities Sold to Get Money With Which to Build a Municipal Plant For the Destruction of Garbage Are Worthless—Law Was Not Constitutional.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 11.—The issue by the city of Milwaukee of $100,000 in bonds for the erection of a municipal garbage plant is declared invalid by a decision of the Supreme court declaring the law of 1897 under which they were issued unconstitutional.

TRAIN ROBBERS REPULSED.

Wells-Fargo Guards Kill One of the Desperados.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 11.—Meager particulars were received in this city late last night from San Simon, a small station just east of Wilcox, Ariz., on the Southern Pacific, of a train hold-up.

Train No. 20, the Sunset limited, had just left Stein's Pass, N. M., near the Arizona line, when the engineer noticed a danger signal in front and immediately applied the brakes. No sooner was the train brought to a stop than five men stepped out from their hiding places near the track, all heavily armed.

One covered the engineer with his Winchester, while the others gave their attention to the train proper, more especially to the express car, firing their guns in the air and otherwise frightening the passengers.

At this point the guards in the express car took a hand in the fusillade. Thirty or forty shots are said to have been fired by both sides. One Wells-Fargo guard, Jennings by name, succeeded in killing Robber Cullen, who was nearest to the car and who was evidently the leader, for as soon as the other robbers noticed his body lying on the ground they lost courage and made a break for their horses, but another bullet from Jennings' Winchester evidently struck one of the fleeing robbers, as he was seen to fall and was assisted out of range by his comrades.

No express money was stolen and none of the passengers were hurt.

Before holding up the train the robbers cut all the telegraph wires and took what money they could find in the ticket office. The name of the dead bandit was "Sandy" Collins. He belonged to the "Black Jack" gang. A posse is after the other robbers.

Glass Workers' Strike.

Elwood, Ind., Dec. 11.—The flatteners employed in the Elwood window glass factory Thursday evening refused to work longer under the Burns scale and demanded the flatteners' scale. Upon the refusal of the manufacturers to grant it the flatteners walked out. There is a difference of about 5 per cent between the two scales. Since the cutters and flatteners withdrew from the national association they have re-organized, and but few are now out of the ranks. They have determined to stand together and demand that the manufacturers sign their scale.

May Curtail Production.

Lewiston, Me., Dec. 11.—Lewiston and Auburn mill operatives and agents are speculating upon the possible effect on local cotton manufacturing of the proposed cut-down at Fall River. One agent said the market was somewhat influenced by the Fall River mills and the situation might demand a reduction in wages and curtailment of the output. Another said he hoped they would not be compelled to cut and he did not want to borrow trouble. Another considered it more advantageous to curtail production than to reduce wages.

To Abolish Sugar Bounty.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—Baron von Thielmann, secretary of the imperial treasury, states that negotiations for the abolition of sugar bounties have been opened, but had been temporarily suspended. The United States tariff, he said, might lead to a revival of negotiations. He hoped to be able to submit a bill dealing with the subject during the second half of the session.

Surplus in German Budget.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—The secretary of the treasury, Baron von Thielmann, in presenting the budget said the surplus for 1897 would be 20,000,000 marks, while the customs and tobacco tax would probably be 70,000,000 marks over the estimates, of which 32,000,000 marks were assigned for debt redemption.

Gale Rages on British Coast.

London, Dec. 11.—A severe gale is again raging along the British coast, and especially over those parts bordering on the Irish Sea. Ships are running for shelter into all the ports.

Rudin's New Cabinet.

Rome, Dec. 11.—The Marquis di Rudini has completed the task of constructing the cabinet. Marquis Visconti Venosta has accepted the foreign office portfolio.

HOLIDAY SERVICE IN LOCAL STORES

SEASON IS ONE OF GOOD WILL TO ALL.

Nathaniel E. Fowler, the Advertising Expert, Tells How to Make it Pay—Customers Make Their Plans Ahead and Merchants Should do the Same

(Copyright, 1897, by Nath'l E. Fowler, Jr.)
These are good-will days.
These are days of good cheer.
These are days of good feeling.
These are the happiest days of all the year.

The Christmas influence is felt in hut, house and hall.

Half of all the Christmas buyers see in their minds eye, and buy in their mind, from three to four weeks before they pass the cash.

The old bachelor, and the dyspeptic parent, may rush down town on the morning of the day before Christmas, but the big buyer and the sensible buyer, consider the purchase beginning with now, and continuing until the consummation of the purchase.

"What to buy" is the question of the day, and he who answers this annual riddle, is he who will make money in the material of its solution. These are days of philanthropy.

I know that business is business, but for all that there is heat as well as cold in trade.

I am not going to argue holiday philanthropy from the high principle of philanthropic virtue, much as I may believe that good should be done for the good of the doing, for my argument must rest with business and selfishness must be a part of it.

I suggest philanthropic methods of business doing from the cold blooded stand points of cold dollars of profit.

Everybody is thinking about giving. Good-will and philanthropy are in the air.

Generosity is for the present a business commodity.

The tide of the present is loaded with presents.

As everybody is thinking about giving, everybody is interested in any giving subject.

Anything bearing upon this subject and any action pertaining to it, gains instant public approval.

It is suggested that it will pay the merchant a department of philanthropy, and to advertise that he will sell the necessary goods he keeps to be delivered to the poor at less-than-cost, cost, or pretty near cost.

Philanthropists are pretty well-to-do people. They will patronize the philanthropist.

The advertiser advertising philanthropy is liable to obtain a large proportion of the regular holiday trade.

It is impossible, but not at all probable, that a very insignificant few might take advantage of the merchant's generosity, and order goods in charity's name for their own use, but this can be obviated by delivering the goods at the home of the poor.

With the Christmas snow upon the ground, and good-will in every heart, few, and probably none will take so mean an advantage, and the merchant need not worry about the improbable.

Let the announcement be in the biggest type, and let it state that certain goods will be delivered to the poor at such a price or discount.

Read the announcement "To Our Philanthropists," and ask generous cooperation.

The leader in anything good is likely to reap a reward.

The public is with him.

Selfishness will not be charged to him.

He is doing good even if he is getting paid for it.

The best philanthropy is that which benefits giver and receiver.

The holiday store should be bright and cheerful, and there should be a Christmas appearance to everything.

Don't overwork the clerks.

A tired clerk is not a ready seller.

Remember that people are now in a confused state, and don't know what to buy, and that they bless and patronize the man who tells them.

Advertise a suggestion every day.

Let the advertisements be of hints and helps.

Necessities, even more than luxuries, are now reckoned as appropriate Christmas gifts.

Make the advertisements really guides to Christmas buying.

Present each article in the holiday light, and tell why it will be appreciated.

If you sell necessities, you have the advantage on your side, for you can tell the people that if they give away your goods the receivers will thank the givers twice, first for the good-will of the present, and second for the value of it.

TO BE ISSUED BY THE STATE

Adjutant General Orders. Copies of Capt. Rogers' Manual of Riot Drill.

Some two years ago Captain Tom J. Rogers of the Beloit Rifles, prepared a manual for a street riot drill, which he put into practice in his own company. The drill attracted much favorable comment and Captain Rogers was induced to publish the book.

Copies were forwarded to the War Department at Washington, where the drill was considerably discussed and many features were adopted by the Army Board on Tactics.

Adjutant General Boardman of Wisconsin has been giving the manual study and as a result Captain Rogers received an order for a large number of copies for the use of the state militia.

LETTER FROM JOHN ENRIGHT

Local Relatives Are Not Worried as to His Safety.

Local relatives are in receipt of a letter from John E. Enright, who is now supposed to be in the Alaska ice fields. The letter was written several weeks ago, and was mailed at Edmonton, the last railway station in Canadian territory before one leaves by foot or boat for Alaska. Mr. Enright stated that his health was good, and that they had provisions to last them at least eighteen months. Local relatives are not worried as to his safety, although it is known that the party is cut off from civilization, by the ice.

ODD FELLOWS WIN

THE OSHKOSH SUIT

WINNEBAGO COUNTY COURT DECISION.

It is to a Certain Extent a Victory For the Delinquents, and They Are Happy In Consequence—Matter Will Now Go to the Supreme Court.

The first case of Assignee John L. Fuller, of the Wisconsin Odd Fellows Mutual Life Insurance company against defaulting members of the company, appealed from a justice court was decided at Oshkosh yesterday by Judge Cleveland of the county court of Winnebago county and is to a certain extent a victory for the members of the insurance company who are in default in the payment of their assessments.

The case was that of the assignee against E. E. Stevens, mayor of Oshkosh, and the court gave judgment in favor of the assignee for $19.80. Judge Cleveland held that the Odd Fellows should be held for all assessments made against them for a period of sixty days after they had defaulted in the payment of an assessment. In the case in point the defendant had refused to pay an assessment which came due June 1, and is obliged, by the decision, to pay two assessments made against him after that time and within the sixty-day limit. There were two deaths during the months of June and July, while the defendant was still a member by reason of the sixty-day clause, but the court holds that as the assessments were not made to pay them until Aug. 1 and Sept. 1, following, the defendant escaped the obligation notwithstanding the deaths took place while he was held by his contract of insurance. Both the assignee and Mr. Stevens will take an appeal to the Supreme court, as this it to be made a test case.

A School Girl's Nerves.

From the "New Era," Greensburg, Ind.

Mothers who have young daughters of school age should watch their health more carefully than their studies. The proper development of their body is of the first importance. After the confinement of the school room, plenty of out-of-door exercise should be taken. It is better that their children never learn their a, b, c's, than that by learning them they lose their health.

But all this is self-evident. Everyone admits it—everyone knows it, but everyone does not know how to build them up when once they are broken down. The following method of one mother, if rightly applied, may save your daughter:

The young lady was Miss Lucy Barnes, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barnes, who lives near Burney, Ind. She is a bright young lady, is fond of books, although her progress in this line has been considerably retarded by the considerable amount of sickness she has experienced. She has missed two years of school on account of her bad health, but now she will be able to pursue her studies, since her health has been restored.

Her father was talking of her case to a newspaper man one day recently. "My daughter has had a very serious time of it," said Mr. Barnes, "but now we are all happy to know that she is getting along all right and is stronger than ever." Asked to relate the story of his daughter, Mr. Barnes continued: "About three years ago, when she was twelve years old, she began to grow weak and nervous. It was, of course, a delicate age for her. She gradually grew weaker and her nerves were at such a tension that the least little noise would irritate her very much, and she was very miserable. There was a continual twitching in the arms and lower limbs, and we were afraid that she was going to develop St. Vitus' dance."

"She kept getting worse and finally we had to take her from her school and her studies. She was strong and healthy before, weighing eighty-five pounds, and in three months she had dwindled to sixty-three pounds. She was thin and pale, and was almost lifeless. We did everything we could for her, and tried all the doctors who we thought could do her any good, but without result.

"There was an old family friend near Milford who had a daughter afflicted the same way, and she was cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They came here one day to spend Sunday, and they told us about their daughter's case. It was very much like Lucy's, and they advised us to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for her. We had no faith in them, but were finally persuaded to try the pills. We have never been sorry for it. They helped her at once, and by the time she had taken eight boxes of the medicine she was entirely cured. She took the last dose in April, and has not been bothered since. She is now stronger than ever, weighs ten pounds more than ever before, and her cheeks are full of color. She can now gratify her ambition to study and become an educated woman."

Those who are in a position to know, state that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is not a patent medicine but a prescription used for many years by an eminent practitioner who produced the most wonderful results with them, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves, two fruitful causes of almost every ill to which flesh is heir. The pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will give speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. They are entirely harmless and can be given to weak and sickly children with the greatest good and without the slightest danger. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

A. H. WINISH IS IN LONDON

Janesville Man Writes of Scenes in the English Capital

Mr. Windish left this city several weeks ago to join the Barnum & Bailey circus in the British capital. He reports a most interesting and enjoyable trip across the Atlantic and says he was not bothered by sickness.

The trip to London was made without accident. After landing in the largest city in the world they hunted up a boarding house which they succeeded in finding in a portion of the city known as Kensington. The proprietor was a lady of some fifty years. She was short in stature and would not weigh one hundred pounds, but served about the hotel as cook, chamber maid, bell boy and landlady. The meals consisted mainly of vegetables. In appearance the hotel resembled a church, while the only illumination consisted of candles.

The London man who pretends to look neat, dresses in very loose clothes. The crowds who throng the main streets seem to all take their time, which is very much unlike the "hurry" one sees in Chicago.

The railroad trains are much unlike those in America and are much smaller. At all the depots one steps from the platform down to the train in place of stepping up as in this country.

The climate of London is at present very foggy and it is difficult for one to find their way about the streets without the aid of guides who each carry lights.

Holiday Excursions.

For the Christmas and New Year holidays, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will sell excursion tickets on its own lines, within a distance of 200 miles, on December 24, 25, and 31, 1897, and January 1, 1898, limited for return up to and including January 4, 1898, at a fare and a third for the round trip.

WARM PRAISE FOR MRS. BOND

Chicago Evening Journal Pays Her Fine Compliments.

The Chicago Journal says: Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond is one of the most interesting of the new aspirants for musical fame among the women composers of Chicago.

Interesting not only from a musical standpoint but for her many accomplishments. She paints unusually well, designs her title pages—and does it artistically—and writes dainty little poems which she frames with her original music. Nature has been kind and Mrs. Bond has not been idle.

With her great talent and energy one is not surprised with what she has accomplished in the past three years and many are now looking forward with assurance of still greater improvement in everything she does. Her activities thus far have only taken the form of ballads for single voices and short pieces for piano-forte solos. The melodies gush forth as easily and unconstrained as the notes of a wild bird, and the play of sentiment through her songs is both native and varied. She deals with moods of tenderness, of sadness, of archness, and at times rises to a tone of earnest passion.

Mrs. Bond has published 19 compositions in pleasing variety. W. W. Denslow, the artist, has created a new field for himself in poster covers, and the first example of that character of his work appears on Mrs. Bond's charming "Frigani Sanna." An exquisite study in colors harmonized in the peculiarly artistic way looked for in all posters that bear the quaint seal-borne of "Den."

Of young men of limited means: If I could afford it, I'd always go to a tailor. Now a suit of clothes I make will last twice as long, and fit twice as good, as a ready made, and more than pays for itself in the satisfaction it brings. As for price: Put ours and the ready-made side by side, and it will be hard to tell them apart.

FITZSIMMONS SAYS CORBETT IS A CUR

CHAMPION WILL NOT FIGHT HIM AGAIN.

Says the Beating He Gave Him At Carson City Ought to Satisfy the Ex-Champion—Telegram From His Wife Denies Truth of Milwaukee Interview on That Subject.

"The dirty cur, I will never fight him again as long as I live. I licked him and licked him bad at Carson City. If again I enter the ring it will not be with that cur Corbett, but it will be with some new man that I have not yet faced."

So said Bob Fitzsimmons, the world's champion pugilist, to a Gazette man at the Hotel Myers this noon.

The Fitzsimmons troupe arrived at 12:50 from Dubuque, Iowa. At the depot, Fitzsimmons and his sister-in-law together with their great Dane dog got into a carriage. At the hotel "Bob" pushing his way through a curious crowd, stepped to the register, and in a good hand wrote his name. Then he went to his room. After removing his overcoat and rubbers Fitz threw out his mighty chest, drew in one long breath, and said that he had just fifteen minutes time before dinner in which to talk.

ROBERT FITZSIMMONS.

Newspaper Told Stories

"In the first place I just wish that you would say that all this newspaper talk amounts to nothing. In the first place I have been quoted, and so has my wife, as saying things that we did not say. Milwaukee papers of this week came out and said that my wife had released me from the promise that I made her to the effect that I would never again fight that man Corbett. Now just to prove to you that this is a lie I will show you a telegram that I received from her today at Davenport."

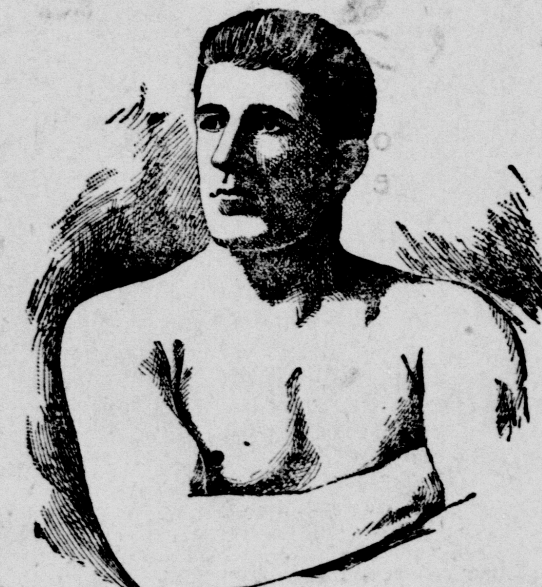

At this point of the interview Fitz walked across the room and took from his overcoat pocket the telegram which read as follows:

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 11. Dear Bob: Never released you from your promise, it is a falsehood. I have contradicted it all in the papers. Fondest love,
ROSE FITZSIMMONS.

Corbett a Coward.

After reading the telegram aloud Fitz was asked, directly, if he would again fight Corbett.

"That man Corbett is as dirty a cur and coward as ever lived," said Fitz.

JAMES J. CORBETT.
[Fitz Says He's a Cur and Coward.]

"for after I once licked him he now asks me to try it again. All he is after is a little newspaper notoriety and he seems to be getting it."

"Yes, my health is good," continued Fitz, "and since my battle at Carson City I have been steadily gaining in weight. I now tip the scales at 180 pounds. I was thirty-five years old last June although I don't think I look it."

At this point Manager Julian notified the great fighter that dinner was ready.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons is not with the show, being in Milwaukee.

The great Dane dog with which Fitz has done much of his training is with him and is constantly by his side.

JOHN M. NELSON IS LAID TO REST

FUNERAL HELD AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Sanctuary Was Filled to the Doors and a Wagon Was Required to Carry the Flowers—Societies Attended in a Body—Other Work of the Grim Reaper.

St. Patrick's church was filled to the door this morning by friends who came to pay a final tribute to the memory of John M. Nelson. Brief services were held at the home, 3 North Jackson street at 8:30 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock the remains were taken to the church. Solemn high mass was sung and the services were sad and impressive. The Right Reverend Dean E. M. McGinnity officiated assisted by Rev. Father Harlin of Edgerton, as deacon, and Rev. Father Collins as sub-deacon. Dean McGinnity spoke feelingly of Mr. Nelson's many good qualities, and brought tears to many eyes.

Handsome floral pieces spoke mutely of the high regard in which Mr. Nelson was held, and the profusion showed that the dead man had a warm place in the hearts of many people. Funeral director P. D. Kimball, who was in charge, was obliged to provide a wagon to carry the flowers.

F. M. Marzluft, Charles Dunn, William Hemming and Fred Wilbur served as ushers at the church.

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Catholic Knights, the Catholic Order of Foresters and St. Patrick's T. The board of directors of Oak Lawn Hospital also attended in a body, and were given seats in the front of the church.

MRS. FRANK DUDLEY GETS HER DIVORCE

JUDGE BENNET CUTS THE NUPTIAL KNOT.

She Had Her Husband Arrested on a Charge of Assault and Battery Some Days Ago—Defendant Did Not Appear—Several Other Cases Are Passed Upon By the Court.

Mrs. Frank Dudley was today granted a divorce by Judge Bennett, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Dudley was given the divorce on motion of her attorney, J. J. Cunningham, there being no appearance on the part of the defendant.

The defendant in this action was recently a defendant in the municipal court, where he was charged with treating his wife harshly. He was found guilty, and sentenced to jail. Anna E. Dudley and Gustave Richter were the only witnesses sworn, this morning, the court thinking their testimony sufficient.

An assignee was today ordered to be appointed in the insolvency case of E. R. Inman. Attorney John Cunningham appeared in behalf of the petitioner, there being no appearance on the part of those in opposition.

On the motion of Whitehead & Matheson, attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of J. S. Conrad vs. David Conger, et al, the court ordered that said action be discontinued as to the defendant, Mary King, and plaintiff allowed to file an amended complaint. It was further ordered that plaintiff have judgment in the sum of $836.56 damages, $658 taxes, $25 fees and costs taxed at $35.49.

In the case of Schoonover vs. Towne the court ordered that further hearing be extended till Tuesday, Dec. 14, and that the time to answer be reasonably extended.

Lamb's Wool Goods—Short Capes and Stylish Sleeves.

A very heavy, fine lamb's wool material is used this winter for wraps for old ladies. Formerly it came only in pale shades and was employed chiefly for dressing sacks, wrappers and babies' cloaks, but now it is to be had in dark colors and even black and is very warm and light. The chief defect it has is the tendency to catch lint and threads, which have to be picked off by hand.

Short capes, or pelorines, for evening wear are brilliant and elaborate novelties. They usually accompany some rather theatrical style of hat and are en suite with it. A model designed to go with a large pink and white hat of complicated construction is of pink mirror velvet. It is flat—that is, not rippled—and is cut in four large scallops around the edge, which is bordered with pink and white feather trimming, full and fluffy, the collar being made to match. The body of the pelorine, which just covers the shoulders, is embroidered with silver sequins and crystal beads in a large and striking pattern.

Sleeves are growing steadily smaller. While a certain amount of fullness is still seen at the top, it is more and more of the nature of separate trimming rather than a part of the sleeve itself. Ruffles, small puffs and various kinds of sleeve caps are the representative arrangement of fullness for the sleeve. Probably by spring these will be dispensed with altogether.

A picture is given of an evening gown for a young girl. It is of accordion plaited pink mousseline de sole over pink satin. The plaited skirt is plain. The bodice, which is cut square at the neck, has a yoke of embroidered guipure, the décolletage being edged by a ruffle of pink mousseline. The short sleeves consist of small puffs of pink mousseline drawn under a band of guipure. The soft belt is of jacquinet velvet.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Mourning Gowns, Reception Toilets and Wedding Attire.

Fashion is as strict in regard to mourning costumes as she is with respect to the ordinary attire, although it would seem that wearers of deep mourning should be exempt from care in such matters. The out of gowns and wraps and the style of hats and bonnets are influenced by the prevailing mode, although the most dignified and elegant mourning is always the simplest. Black fur is permitted, and there are now so many varieties of dull wool and worsted crape that English crape may be dispensed with in a great measure.

Reception gowns are very elegant and original this season, often recalling historical models. The hostess sometimes chooses a particular style of attire—empire, tudor or other—and clings to that for her reception toilets, relying solely upon differences of color and trimming for variety.

Princess gowns are more and more a la mode, especially for wedding toilets. White satin is, of course, the preferred material, as usual. There is seldom any change of fashion as far as that goes. The style of making is simple in the extreme, according to the best models, but the cut and fit of the princess costume must be perfect. The train is usually round and very long. The gown fastens at the side or, more newly, down the middle of the back with lacings or buttons. The collar is high, the sleeves long, and costly lace is the decoration par excellence.

An illustration is given of a wedding gown of white satin. It is cut in the princess style and has a long, round train. The bodice, which fastens at the left side with two large silver buttons, is lightly draped at the shoulder under a coquille of white lace mixed with orange blossoms. The close sleeves are wrinkled around the upper arm.

satin platings and a frill of lace. The neck and wrist ruffles are of lace, and tiny clusters of orange blossoms are also placed at the wrists.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

There is no medicine in the world equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the cure of throat and lung diseases. This is a fact that has been proven in numberless cases. Here is a sample of thousands of letters received: "I have tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy while suffering from a severe throat trouble, and found immediate and effective relief. I can unhesitatingly recommend it."—Edgar W. Whittemore, editor Grand Rivers (Ky) Herald. For sale at O. D. Stevens' drug store, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Good Printing...

Is like good painting—it demands and obtains a second glance. The second glance leads to thought about and knowledge of the thing portrayed, and then on to the artist or advertiser.

The kind of printing as well as the kind of painting that it pays to do and to have done is that which obtains this "second glance." Plenty of the other kind!

We are PRINTERS. Our work obtains glances of admiration, and thus leads on to the end desired. We don't do the "other kind." Put our job room to the test.

HE FED THE BABY 30 PILLS

Town of Porter Infant Is Very Sick In Consequence.

The Evansville Enterprise says: "A peculiar and distressing accident happened to an infant child of William Colwell, who lives in the town of Porter, on Wednesday morning of this week. A three year old brother of the baby found while playing a full vial of Carter's sugar coated liver pills and amused himself by feeding them one by one to the baby, who readily swallowed them as fast as presented. The mother surmised that he took at least thirty of the pills. The parents hurriedly brought the child to Dr. Staire's office in this city where medical help was promptly given, and it is hoped that the little fellow will eventually recover."

BUSY HANDLING THE LEAF

Farmers Can Now Take The Tobacco Crop In Hand.

The tobacco crop from hundreds of acres of land has been handled during the past few days by the farmers of Rock county as the soft weather enabled them to take it from the shed. J. F. Willey, who has been driving over the county reports that the late rains has brought the leaf into case. It is estimated that fully 6,000 acres of tobacco in this county will be handled as the result of this late damp spell.

THE LEADER. Corner Milwaukee & Franklin Sts.

The Mecca Of Holiday Shoppers.

Janesville has a metropolitan store, a store where anything can be bought from a pin to a diamond. A store that has attractions for the person who wishes to buy one cent's worth as well as the person who has $100 to spend. This store is a mecca for holiday purchasers. The past two months The Leader has been busy receiving goods for the holiday trade. Every available space and corner is crowded full with useful and artistic articles. Our store was found to be too small to hold the great array of articles so The Leader secured the store room formerly occupied by E. J. Green, as its Annex. This store too is crowded with Toys and Christmas articles of all kinds. Foreign and domestic markets were searched for the prettiest goods for the Christmas season and such an array of loveliness Janesville has never before seen. The daintiest stock of China in sets and single pieces that was possible to obtain is here. Beautiful sets and single pieces of the daintiest Imported Ware in countless numbers. The entire line may be termed a maize of loveliness.

❁ Toys, Dolls, Lamps, Books, Etc. ❁

Everything imaginable in Toys for the children, and dolls as low as 4 cents in price. Children's Picture Books with beautiful colored plates as low as 4 cents. This line includes all the books that children like so well. Most beautiful array of Lamps ever brought to the city. Those Few Remaining Stoves Are Going Fast.

Not a day passes that we don't sell a number of Stoves. Our stock is fast depleting and we are anxious to close every Stove out regardless of cost. We guarantee you a saving of 30 to 50% on your Stove purchase. It is most necessary to see The Leader stock to fully realize its magnitude. We don't care whether you purchase or not. We want you to call on us.
